Fireside Chat to focus on building a resilient economy

Join the Saskatchewan Chamber of Commerce, alongside the Regina & District Chamber of Commerce, on Wednesday, January 17 for Building A Resilient Economy: A Fireside Chat.

The event will feature the Honourable François-Philippe Champagne, Canada's Minister of Innovation, Science & Industry; the Honourable Dustin Duncan, Saskatchewan's Minister of Crown Investments Corporation; and, the Honourable Jeremy Harrison, Saskatchewan's Minister of Trade and Export Development.

A dark green graphic for the event "BUILDING A RESILIENT ECONOMY". It includes the date and time "JANUARY 17, 2024 | 11:30 AM - 1:30 PM | REGINA, SK" and three speakers with their titles: "The Honourable François-Philippe Champagne, Canada's Minister of Innovation, Science & Industry", "The Honourable Dustin Duncan, Saskatchewan's Minister of Crown Investments Corporation", and "The Honourable Jeremy Harrison, Saskatchewan's Minister of Trade and Export Development". Each speaker is accompanied by a small portrait photo.

During this discussion, we will explore the realities and necessities of building a resilient economy as we face multiple transitions in regard to critical minerals and the digital industry, the province's economic opportunities and how Saskatchewan's companies can lead in the economy of tomorrow.

The event will be held at the Doubletree By Hilton. The agenda is as follows:

11:30 a.m. – Registration and buffet lunch.

12:15 p.m. – Moderated Q&A begins.

1:30 p.m. – Event ends.

City Building Speaker Series resumes Jan. 16

The third instalment of the City Building Speaker Series will be held on Tuesday, January 16 and will feature Pilar Martinez and Carol Belanger as the guest speakers.

The series features speakers who have experience and insight into how cities can maintain and build vibrancy and prosperity in our communities and the importance of public and private investment in our central cities.

Martinez, CEO of Edmonton Public Libraries and Belanger, City Architect for the City of Edmonton, will share their successes and lessons learned in expanding the Edmonton Public Library and the importance of libraries in community, including:

- The new role libraries play in society
- Libraries as catalysts for investment
- Libraries as sources of community pride
- Libraries and placemaking
- Cost effective design and civic buildings

The event will be held at the Regina Public Library Film Theatre and will begin at 5:30 p.m. with networking. The presentations will start at 5:45 p.m. and will be followed by a Q&A session.

The event is free of charge but registration is required due to venue space limitations. To register, click HERE.

The City Building Speaker Series is a partnership between the Regina Downtown Business Improvement District, Regina's Warehouse Business Improvement District and the Regina & District Chamber of Commerce. We graciously thank the Regina Public Library for co-hosting this event.
