

Regina Open Door Society provides resources for staffing recruitment

BY THE REGINA OPEN DOOR SOCIETY

Are you facing challenges in sourcing qualified candidates for your hard-to-fill job positions? Look no further than Regina Open Door Society (RODS) Employment Services, a trusted resource for connecting businesses like yours with talented newcomers to Canada.

Regina Open Door Society is a non-profit organization that provides settlement and integration services to refugees and immigrants in Regina. Our Employment Services department specializes in matching skilled newcomers with diverse backgrounds to job opportunities that align with their qualifications and experiences.

We invite you to explore the many ways you can collaborate with RODS Employment Services to meet your recruitment needs and support the professional development of newcomers to Regina:

1. Career Link Job Fair: Mark your calendars for May 22 and attend our Career Link job fair event. This is a prime opportunity to connect with a pool of qualified candidates actively seeking employment opportunities in Regina.

You can register for this event here:

Career Link - Employers « Events « Regina Open Door Society \(RODS\)

2. Volunteer Opportunities: Consider volunteering your time and expertise to mentor Canadian newcomers. You can also contribute by conducting mock interviews, which can greatly benefit individuals preparing for job interviews in a new country.

3. Paid Work Placements and Unpaid Experiential Learning Opportunities: Partner with our Career Bridging, Youth Employment Skills Strategy, and English for Employment programs to host paid work placements or unpaid experiential learning opportunities to provide newcomers with valuable Canadian work experience. This is a great way to support the integration of newcomers into the local workforce.

4. Guest Speaking Opportunities: Share information about your company and industry with our clients by becoming a guest speaker at RODS Employment Services. This is a unique opportunity to showcase your company's values and job opportunities directly to potential candidates.

5. Post Job Openings: Let us do your recruiting for you! We are happy to share job openings within our organization and via our newsletter. We can also directly refer qualified candidates to you, bypassing the need for expensive and exhausting recruitment processes. We understand the importance of finding the right fit for your company, especially when it comes to roles that are often difficult to fill.

By partnering with RODS Employment Services, you not only gain access to a diverse talent pool but also contribute to the growth and success of newcomers to Regina. Together, we can create a welcoming and inclusive community where everyone has the opportunity to thrive.

To learn more about how you can get involved, please visit our website at rods.sk.ca or email employment@rods.sk.ca. We look forward to collaborating with you to build a brighter future for newcomers and businesses alike!

SaskPower written submission deadline is May 15

SaskPower is currently planning how it will supply power to Saskatchewan, now and into the future, and the project is nearing the end of its fourth stage.

The fourth stage of The Future Supply Plan -- 2030 and Beyond Project includes a survey that takes feedback on SaskPower's long-term supply plan draft summary. The response has been strong and as a result, the written submission deadline has been extended until Wednesday, May 15.

To submit a written response, click HERE.

Stage 1 ran from September to November 2022 and engaged the public sector, asking how it wanted to participate, what supply options it would like to learn more about and the opportunities it sees for the future.

Stage 2, Understanding Priorities, ran from December 2022 to April 2023.

Stage 3, Exploring Future Power Supply Scenarios, began in October and is scheduled to run through mid-December.

Stage 4, Reviewing the Draft Long-term Plan, began in February 2024 and is scheduled to be completed by the end of May.

Stage 5, Finalizing the Long-term Supply Plan, set to begin in June 2024.

For more information on the project, click HERE.

CCR AGM & luncheon scheduled for May 23

The next event for the Canadian Club of Regina (CCR) will be held on Thursday, May 23 and feature Wilf Perreault as guest speaker.

Set for the Atlas Hotel, the event will begin with the CCR annual general meeting at 11 a.m., followed by the luncheon at 11:30 a.m. and Perreault's presentation at 12 noon.

Perreault, one of Saskatchewan's most celebrated painters, will speak about some of the inspirations that drive his creative outcomes.

In 2016, Perrault was a recipient of the Saskatchewan Order of Merit, the province's highest honour. His artwork, inspired by everyday back alley, front street or side views, hangs in both corporate and private collections. Creating art is his passion and it is a daily commitment that continues with a love of the process -- the magic, the mystery, and the outcome.

Admission is $10 for Canadian Club annual members, $15 for regular members, $20 for non-members and for $5 for students with ID.

For more information or to register for the event, email canadianclubofregina@gmail.com by May 21.

In its 115th year in Regina, the Canadian Club of Regina provides a forum for speakers who are leaders in business, politics, academia and the arts.
