City of Regina seeking input on Neighbourhood Plan Review

The City of Regina is inviting residents and stakeholders to provide feedback on the next phase of the Expanding Citywide Housing Options project. Currently, the City has 20 approved Neighbourhood Plans, many of which are outdated and inconsistent, limiting the ability to offer diverse housing options across Regina.

This review follows recent changes to the City's Zoning Bylaw and Official Community Plan, resulting from its application to the federal Housing Accelerator Fund (HAF) program. These changes will allow more housing options in established neighbourhoods and increase housing density near main transit routes.

These changes mark a transition towards a citywide planning approach that better supports growth and the development of housing, services, and amenities in all Regina neighbourhoods.

Information on Area Specific Neighbourhood Plan reviews and draft recommendations are posted at Regina.ca/housingoptions. Residents and stakeholders are welcomed to provide feedback from now until August 23, 2024.

Feedback gathered will inform recommendations presented to the Regina Planning Commission and City Council in September 2024.

FFSA hosting 77th Annual Reunion in Regina

The First Special Service Force (FSSF) was an elite commando group in World War II. It also became known as The Devils Brigade. Created in July 1942 at the behest of Winston Churchill, Dwight Eisenhower and Franklin Roosevelt, and under the command of Lt. Colonel Robert Frederick, the Force's home base and training was at Fort William Henry Harrison, Helena MT.

With an original contingent of 1,800 American and Canadian volunteers, it was the first and only military outfit representing both nations. Eighty of the recruits called Saskatchewan home and 15 of those men were killed in action. The Canadians in the FSSF were concurrently members of the 1st Canadian Special Forces Battalion.

The Force was deactivated in December 1944. In 251 days of combat, the FSSF suffered 2,314 casualties (wounded and dead), 134% of its combat strength, captured over 30,000 prisoners, won five U.S. campaign stars, eight Canadian battle honours, and never failed a mission. In February 2015, the United States Congress presented its highest honour, the Congressional Gold Medal, to the First Special Service Force.

In August 1947, Force veterans formed the First Special Service Force Association (FSSFA) and committed to holding annual reunions alternating between USA and Canadian locales. Now, 76 reunions later, Regina will be home to the 77th annual reunion. The Regina reunion will be held at the Hilton DoubleTree hotel August 14-17, with an expected attendance of about 125 people from across Canada and the United States.

Attendees do not need to be members of the Association (although we do encourage it). People interested in attending can register at this website. You can register for the full reunion or the Banquet only.
